Exhibit E

MR. GURSKY: I'm sorry, I didn't hear the question. You trailed off.

ARBITRATOR HIGGINS: Could you read the question back, please?

(The reporter read back the portion requested.)

MR. MERRILL: I'll withdraw the question as it's recorded.

BY MR. MERRILL:

Q. You received Exhibit Company 1; correct?

A. Have I received that in the past? Yes.

Q. You don't remember, though, the last time you received it?

A. No.

Q. You'd agree with me, would you not, that disability leave benefits are to be used for a bona fide disability; correct? That's the purpose of the benefits?

A. Yes.

Q. And they shouldn't be used if you don't actually have a disability; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And it's true, is it not, that you received permission in the past to travel while on disability benefits; correct?

A. No.
Q. In 2001?
A. I never asked for any kind of permission to travel, and nobody ever gave me any permission to travel.
Q. You never had a discussion with anybody at Aetna about permission to travel?
A. That is correct, not about travel, that's correct.
Q. What about vacation?
A. Yes, I had a conversation about vacation.
Q. About permission to take vacation while on disability?
A. No, whether or not I'd lose my scheduled vacation.
Q. And that was the exact discussion that you recall?
A. That's correct.
Q. Have you ever had occasion to see your 1477? Do you know what a 1477 is?
A. No.
Q. You don't. Have you ever seen a sheet that Verizon uses to track your attendance?
A. Yes.
